

Raindrop foundation's 7th Annual Turkish Language and Culture Olympiad Southwestern States Awards Gala is approaching. The program will be held on the 24th of March at Arena Theater. As an effort to appreciate donors and raise funds, Raindrop held fundraising and appreciation dinner for Turkish Language and Culture Olympiad at Turquoise Grill and Bar in Sugar Land. Among the best Mediterranean restaurants in town, Turquoise Grill and Bar served delicious food at the event.

After the dinner, the guests expressed that the food was awesome. During the event, an artist played pleasant melodies with the tanbur, a long-necked, fretted, plucked lute in classical Turkish music. Mehmet Okumus, President and CEO of Raindrop Foundation informed the guests about the olympiad and the current financial standing. Among the distinguished guests were Selim Topçu, consul of Turkey and Engin Yaşar, Commercial Attache of Turkey. We would like to thank all our sponsors for their generous support for this program contributing to linguistic and cultural diversity of our community.
